

September 19, 2017

Noteworthy News

Congratulations to client firm Gelb & Gelb on its September 11 feature on the front page of The Boston Globe. In addition to its criminal defense practice, the firm counsels clients on risk and crisis management, and resolution of disputes through mediation and settlement negotiations.

Blog Bites

A recent post features Cummings Center client firm, Express Yourself. The nonprofit arts immersion organization has made a tremendous mark on the visual and cultural vibe of the campus, greatly enriching the Live, Work, Play feel of the North Shore's premier business center. Keep an eye out for displays of Express Yourself's artwork.

Quick Links

Client Directory

Cummings Properties

Service Call Request

Executive Office Suites

Submit Your News

To be included in a future edition, please email newsbrief@cummings.com.

Upcoming Events

Electronics Recycling: Green Network Exchange will host an electronics recycling event, Wednesday, September 27 from 10 AM to noon, at 100 Cummings Center's 144 loading dock. To ensure safety, please deliver items for recycling directly to personnel managing the event; do not leave them on the loading dock. Click here for a complete list of recyclable items. For additional information, contact David Williams at 781-330-0085.

Beverly Farmers Market will only be open for two more Mondays, from 3 to 7 PM, at Veterans Memorial Park on Rantoul Street. It's a special time of transition where you can enjoy stone fruits, watermelons, grapes, tomatoes, and late blueberries as you start to see apples, pears, and pumpkins hit the market stands. Shop local for fresh fruits, vegetables, baked goods, crafts, and more. For additional information, visit the market on Facebook, or call 978-712-9054.

Friendly Reminder

Segway? No Way! As a reminder, other than motorized devices used by mobility-challenged individuals, personal use of any wheeled devices, such as bikes, rollerblades, or motorized personal transporters (like a Segway), is strictly prohibited inside any building at Cummings Center. The use of such devices poses an unacceptable risk to the users and to others, is not acceptable in a professional office setting, and is likely to lead to property damage. Please limit the use of such devices to outdoor roadways. Thank you for your cooperation.

Business Spotlight

Aspire Learning Center, located at 100 Cummings Center, Suite 135-C, provides center- and home-based services to children and adolescents with Autism Spectrum Disorder and related disabilities and diagnoses through an individualized teaching methodology. Aspire uses peer models across the program to further reinforce skills acquisition and generalization. Co-founders Tiffany Frongillo and Jessica Blutstein have more than 26 years of combined experience as applied behavior analysts.

Tiffany and Jessica recently expanded operations by adding another 3,600 square feet of space. Aspire is currently open for enrollment for its early childhood and afterschool programs, as well as a social skills group. For more information or to schedule a tour, call 978-473-7300 or email info@aspirelearningcenter.org.

If you no longer wish to receive our emails you may unsubscribe. Unfortunately, if you unsubscribe, you will not receive important building notices such as water and electric shutdowns, or fire alarm testing.

