

600 Cummings Center

An extraordinary pond-side setting

Nestled at the edge of Upper Shoe Pond, a select group of businesses enjoy Cummings Center's most stunning views in the formerly-neglected 1940's addition to United Shoe Machinery's historic campus. A complete renovation to what is now known as 600 Cummings Center, including the addition of several dormers, has transformed the 65,000 square foot building into one of the North Shore's most admired corporate addresses.
